Washington, June 29.—The first American troops were landed in Italy yesterday, General March, chief of staff, announced today. These are not the forces sent by General Pershing, but consist of units sent from this country, largely sanitary units, but include other special organizations. On the whole, however, it is made up mostly of non-combatant units. The combatant troops will be sent by General Pershing.

General March had no announcement to make today as to the total number of troops sent to France. A formal announcement would be made later, he said. Surveying the entire battlefield, he said that the situation could be said to be extremely favorable to the allies. He would make no comment upon the indications of an impending German attack.

The first National Army division has taken over a sector at the French front. It is the 7th, raised in New York, trained at Camp Upton. It was taken across under Maj. Gen. Johnson. Five American divisions which have been brigaded with the British for training, have been returned to General Pershing's command with their training completed.

(By Associated Press)

The official reports from the Italian front, General March disclosed, place the number of the Austrians captured as 18,000. The line of the Phave has been entirely restored by the Italians, and in some places has been slightly advanced.

Paris, June 29.—German attacks on the front southwest of Soissons for the purpose of placing the French from the positions taken by them on Thursday were repulsed last night according to an official statement by the war office today.

In an operation northwest of Montdidier American troops took 40 prisoners. The Germans sent assault detachments against the line held by the Italians on Bilgny heights, southwest of Rheims, but the Italians drove them off.

London, June 29.—In their actions against the enemy near Nieppe woods yesterday, the British took more than 400 prisoners, the war office announced today. Two German field guns, in addition to machine guns, French mortars and war material, were captured by the British.

KITTERY POINT BOY CITED FOR BRAVERY

Private Fred Marden Stuck to Post While Under Bombardment and Gas Attack.

Word has been received by Captain and Mrs. Henry Marden of Kittery Point, that their son Fred, a private in the 101st Field Battalion, Signal Corps, American Expeditionary Forces, in France, has been cited for gallant conduct and bravery in action.

Young Marden together with several others was cited in orders issued by the headquarters of the 26th Division, A. E. F., and congratulated by the Division Commander for gallant conduct on the 10th of May when their sector was subjected to a severe gas attack and violent bombardment by the enemy. These men continually patrolled and repaired breaks in the telephone lines thereby maintaining continuous communication through the command during the critical period.

Private Marden enlisted early last year and has been in France ever since last summer, the greater part of the time being at the front. In a recent letter to his parents he wrote that he had stuck to his post during a terrific bombardment, although he was badly gassed.

Marden is a graduate of Traip Academy, class of 1912, and for several years was employed by the Edison Electric Company in Boston and the General Electric Company in Lynn.

U. S. TROOPS POLICE COLON AND PANAMA

(By Associated Press)

Panama, June 29.—Upon orders from Washington, American troops began patrolling Panama City and Colon yesterday afternoon. The action was taken under the treaty of 1904 authorizing the United States to assume this police duty whenever it became necessary to maintain order. The Panama government has protested to Washington against this measure.

MANCHESTER MILL HANDS WANT RAISE

(By Associated Press)

Manchester, June 29.—Officials of the Amesbury and Stark mills here conferred with union officers today regarding the demands of the 20,000 operatives for a 15 per cent wage increase.

The union committee was expected to report at a meeting later in the day and it was stated by leaders that a refusal on the part of the manufacturers would result in a strike Monday.

LOWELL MILL OPERATIVES GO ON STRIKE

Lowell, June 29.—The local cotton mills have refused the demands of the operatives for a 5 per cent increase in wages in addition to the 10 per cent increase granted two weeks ago, and the operatives voted to strike.

WOMAN CREATES A SENSATION IN DOVER

Religious Fanatic Says God Is
With Kaiser, and Liberty Bonds Worthless.

A woman book agent created a sensation at the Boston & Maine station at Dover, Friday. She was selling a religious book and when a man she solicited told her he had invested all his money in Liberty Bonds, she is reported to have replied that the bonds were worthless; that God was with the Kaiser and that the Kaiser would win the war.

The impression she gave bystanders was that she was a religious fanatic. The matter was investigated by Acting Asst. City Marshal Murray. She told him what she said about Liberty Bonds was a joke. She bought a ticket for Clinton, Mass., and left.

Floyd Walthall, who distinguished himself while in Haverthill, Kan., as a poet, is doing equally well in St. Joseph, where he is working in a packing house.

"I get more news out of the Portsmouth Herald than I do the Boston papers," said one of the new comers in the Herald office today.

OWN SEVERAL PAIRS, wear them in rotation. Each night rinse them with tepid water and Ivory soap the pair worn that day. After rinsing out all the soap, hang them to dry indoors, where strong sunlight will not strike them, thereby preventing the colors from fading. The chief enemy of silk stockings is soil from perspiration and dust—also leather atoms from shoe linings. Remove these each night after wearing, by the brief washing suggested, and you eliminate the likelihood of worn spots or broken threads appearing unduly early.

A Necessary and Valuable Work.

A good thing is in the air in Portsmouth and vicinity that the work in connection with the health zone established here is getting under way. The general plans have been set forth in the columns of this paper and there is reason to believe they will fully meet the needs in the case.

The official headquarters will be in the city hall and the local physicians are prepared to co-operate heartily in the effort to prevent and control contagious diseases of all kinds. A laboratory will be maintained which will be of invaluable assistance in the work of diagnosis, and there will be public health nurses who will see to the maintenance of quarantine and give instructions in the proper care of the sick. The city health department will be a part of the general organization and when all is in running order the facilities and forces for guarding against the spread of disease will be ample and adequate.

This zone has been established by the government primarily for the protection of the men of the navy yard and those of the neighboring ship building plants, but the work to be done will also be worth much to the population of the city and vicinity. Owing to the recent appearance of small pox in this region an order has gone forth for general vaccination, which may be had free of charge at the city hall, and later there will be vaccination for the prevention of typhoid fever.

The propriety of this step and the value of the work to be done are beyond all question. Where such large bodies of men are assembled and engaged in government work an outbreak of contagious disease would result in serious inconvenience and loss, and it is well that every possible preventive measure should be taken. True is the old saying, "Prevention is better than cure," and the cost of maintaining this health zone will be far more than offset by the benefits to the government workmen and the people of the city and region.

In recent years long strides have been made in the matter of preventing and controlling contagious disease. There was a time when small pox was as uncontrollable as a forest fire and far more disastrous. That condition was changed many years ago, and now medical science has largely got the upper hand of the most dreaded of scourges. Through vaccination, sanitation and other channels great and beneficial changes have been brought about and epidemics of dangerous diseases are practically a thing of the past.

The people of Portsmouth and the great army of workmen here are to be congratulated on what is being done for the protection of their health, for the benefits are sure to be substantial and widespread, and these will be shared by all citizens.

One of the striking features of the big meeting of farmers held near this city a few days ago was the great number of automobiles used by those who attended. It showed that farmers and their families are using more and more the popular conveyance and saving the strength of their horses for work at home. And the farmers have come to understand that the automobile is a greater saver of time as well as of horse-flesh.

And now another distinction comes to Portsmouth. It is one of the cities on the line of the auto truck parcel post route between New York and Portland, Me., which will go into operation July 1. Seven trucks will be used and the service promises to be of substantial value to the towns and cities through which they will pass at very frequent intervals.

One thing is certain, and that is that the most bitter opponents of the administration will not accuse it of pursuing a "cheese paring" policy in its conduct of the war. The habit of figuring in billions has become too firmly established to admit of any criticism of that sort.

The New Hampshire bakers who have been violating the food law cannot complain that they have been too severely dealt with. The fact is that they have been rather leniently treated, and they and others will do well to profit by the lesson that has been taught.

The conservation of cloth at this time is commendable, but the necessity of it is no excuse for the flying of a dirty or ragged flag. Some of the people of the city are awake to this fact and it would be a good thing if the awakening were to become general.

Some of the German papers have been talking about the "lightning-trained" Yankee soldiers. And now they are getting an opportunity to tell what the Yankees can do, but this will not be so pleasant a pastime as were their efforts at satire.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

They Will Eat At Italy's Expense
(From the New York Sun)
The Austrian people may draw this consolation from the wreck: That the 45,000 prisoners won't be eating home food any longer.

Too Prudent
(From the Hartford Courant)
The president of the great Prudential Insurance Company has been than is allowed and the Government found to have more coal in his cellar officials are removing fifty-six tons (From the Pittsburgh Chronicle Tel.)

Those Summer Furs
(From the Albany Journal)
One of the things that men cannot understand is the adoption of the car-muff style of wearing the feminine hair, just when the hot weather is coming.

Leads in Point; Lack in Prophet
(From the Buffalo Express)
That story about feeding by means of airplanes the Austrians who were caught between the Italian lines and the Adriatic river. Plays a part in several points that older story of the ravens which did a little feeding stunt one upon a time.

The Negro and the Flag
(From the Charlotte Observer)
A long train on the Southern pulled out of Hickory, with three cars with negro men going to the training camp. They were a husky lot, one of physical and highly enthusiastic. There was a large crowd about the depot to see them off, and the train pulled away amidst some of the loudest shoutings heard in Hickory in many a day. These negro recruits went away happy. The laughter and the singing proved that, and from the rear came one of the number kept the flag flying in the breeze. The colored soldier is above all things proud of the refrain, "We'll never let the flag hit the ground," originated, and it was the North Carolina darkies that carried the song to the front. If one is curious to know if the negro will fight, he will only have to let a negro soldier see him slight the flag.

Your Three Pounds of Sugar
(From the Philadelphia Public Ledger)
Americans probably consume more sweets than any other people, and the monthly ration of three pounds of sugar per person ordered by the Food Administration will hit them hard. This is a larger ration than the English, French and Italians get, however, and it ought to be cheerfully accepted. The effects may not be felt so much in domestic use, although large consumers of cake and puddings will have to restrain their appetites. But that peculiarly American institution, the soda fountain, will suffer greatly. The makers of candies and soft drinks must submit to a fifty per cent cut in sugar, the makers of ice cream to a seventy-five per cent cut. With the hot weather coming on, this will seem like a real hardship to many people. Yet it is a very small one in comparison with what the men at the front are enduring. And it might be consoling to reflect that we shall really be better off if we refrain from combating the thermometer by the internal application of ice-cold palliatives.

The Loyal Servant in the House
(From the New York World)
Lena Schwartz was a guest of honor Saturday night at the West Forty-Seventh street household, which she has served as a maid of all work for twenty-five years. Her mistress cooked the dinner for the occasion. Lena sat at the head of the table. It was a becoming tribute to a servant who, apparently without exhaustion, has pleased her employer well in all things. It is a coincidence in the history of local domesticity that Bridget O'Donnell, who was with the Crane family sixty-one years, served also in West Forty-Seventh street. But Mary Ayler, worth, who nursed in seventy years three generations of Hugues, pursued a wandering course in following a family the head of which had been a minister, and she died in New Jersey. For fifty-five years Ellen Fleming served the Leavenworths of Staten Island, and the daughter of the house, who became the wife of Sir Roderick W. Cameron. In New Brunswick, N. J., a few years ago, there was a family feast of fifties to mark the semi-century in continuous service of Mary Grogan as kitchen-maid, waitress, cook and nurse.

About the Nation's Health
(From the Chronicle)
The most effective agent for dealing with a nation's health is the national Government. Disease germs are interstate carriers. No village, town or state can regulate the activities of the organisms that produce disease. A bungling, ignorant or vicious local official can be a menace to a whole nation. He ought not to be given the power to work such irreparable harm.

Joe Bell Willing Well
(From the London Chronicle)
Two cheerful verses in which a tribute was paid to his wife constituted the will of Mr. Joseph Bell, of Ambleside-gardens, Streatham, whose estate has just been proved of £116,115. He will read:
I will and bequeave
to her I hereave
Rose Georgina Bell
about whom all speak well,
My CCHM and my WIFE
My soul and my life—
ALL MY ESTATE.
So make no mistake
My worthy solicitor,
Least o' nights unadvised I frequently visit her.
As straw was required in the making of bricks
It is useful to have an executrix
So I appoint Miss Jane Fordham provided she'll act
And as my executor the war to enact
My brother Frank Bell who's so acutely exact.

as, for example, Mayor Hyman might have effected, had public opinion of a great community not forced him to change his mind.

Dr. Charles H. Mayo of Rochester in his inaugural address before the American Medical Association last year made, incidentally, the statement that our country should secure a medical cabinet officer in the near future.

One wonders why so excellent a suggestion has not been made before. Every city and State has its board of health. The health of more than one hundred million men, women and children is vital enough to the nation socially and economically to warrant the employment of a cabinet officer. It has seemed in the past that the really important matters that affect the life and happiness of the millions were not the matters that most concerned our American legislative bodies.

Some sentiment of this sort must have filled the heart of Ambassador Gerard when in August, 1914, he received that trust from Sir Edward Goschen at Berlin and pledged himself that the interests of Great Britain should receive from him that attention which he would give to the interests of the United States. Sir Edward Goschen and Great Britain were satisfied to place their affairs in the hands of Ambassador Gerard. And the shade of "George" Washington must have smiled.

The transfer of papers is shown with due ceremony and dignity in "My Four Years in Germany," the film play, founded upon the book of his experiences, by Ambassador Gerard. This film is exhibited at the Colonial Theatre for four days, beginning next Wednesday, July 3.

The events leading to this transfer of responsibility are clearly shown in the picture. On the night of July 28, 1914, Sir Edward Goschen called on Von Bethmann Hollweg, and the famous interview took place regarding England and her neutrality. The most striking part is the proposal by Hollweg that England "would stand by while the French colonies were taken and France beaten, so long as French territory was not taken."

"That would be a disgrace from which England would never recover," said Goschen.

Again Hollweg tried his art, endeavoring to make Sir Edward agree that England would not interfere if the neutrality of Belgium was violated. Goschen refused and both men know that the break is near. On August 4, the day that the Kaiser made his famous address to the Reichstag, Sir Edward Goschen tells Gerard that he will ask for his passport. He receives that from Von Jagow and turns his embassy over to Gerard.

It is strange that the mortal remains of King George III. turn in their last resting place?

Is it strange that the shade of George Washington smiles?

"MY FOUR YEARS IN GERMANY"

Examination of the remains of the late George III. of England will doubtless show that the transable monarch has probably turned in his grave. A little Sherlock Holmes work would probably determine the date of the disturbance. And it is more than likely that the date would coincide with that upon which the Ambassador of Great Britain, duly accredited to the court of the Hohenzollerns, handed his papers and public affairs over to Ambassador James W. Gerard, representing the American republic, which was forced into existence by George III.

Times change and men change with them.

Some sentiment of this sort must have filled the heart of Ambassador Gerard when in August, 1914, he received that trust from Sir Edward Goschen at Berlin and pledged himself that the interests of Great Britain should receive from him that attention which he would give to the interests of the United States.

PISCATAQUA LODGE NOW AT SALEM

Piscataqua Lodge, No. 6, of Salem, N. H., recently enjoyed a get-together meeting, which was attended by 174 members.

The grand officers of New Hampshire and Massachusetts were present. Degrees were taken from Hudson and Nashua were there. The initiatory degree was worked at 6 o'clock on 26 candidates. This was followed by a banquet served by the ladies of the Center M. E. Church under the direction of the chairman, Mrs. Charles B. Merrill. At the table of honor was seated Noble Grand of the new lodge, Rev. Mr. Markey, Grand Master, Emory of the state of New Hampshire, District Deputy Grand Master March of the state, Grand Warden of the Grand Encampment of Patricians Dr. F. A. Carleton, Grand Patrician George Wadsworth of Massachusetts, Grand Patrician M. P. Crowell of New Hampshire, Grand Secretary Way of New Hampshire Grand Lodge, Grand Warden of Patricians George W. Hall, and three brothers of the old lodge from Portsmouth, Brothers Rugg, Cotton and Smith.

A number of two minute speakers were introduced. Vice Grand F. O. Wheeler was called upon and he responded with a brief history of the lodge. Piscataqua lodge was formed in Portsmouth 14 years ago. During those years it had 125 members. Of late years interest in the institution lagged. Four men carried on the work of the lodge until the present time when it was a case of transferring the lodge or giving up their charter. These four men, rather than see their lodge go out of existence gladly capitulated to transfer to Salem and did everything in their power to help the new institution there. Brother Smith had served 25 years as noble grand, Brother Rugg served 20 years as treasurer and 10 years as secretary, and Brother Cotton was elected for 32 years as representative to the Grand Encampment. Each one has been an Odd Fellow over 50 years. Vice Grand Wheeler offered a toast to these three veterans and everyone arose and the hall resounded with cheers.

U. S. ARMY TO POLICE COLON AND PANAMA

Washington, June 29.—Sec. Baker today instructed Maj. Gen. Blatchford, commanding the Department of Panama, to take over the policing of the cities of Panama and Colon for the purpose of maintaining public order.

The action resulted from information received at the State Department from the Government of Panama that grave disorders were expected because of the postponement of the National elections set for June 30. Decision to postpone the elections for six months was taken by the Government of Panama because of vice conditions in the two terminal cities of the Panama Canal, which had led to a boycott against them by the American Army authorities.

The Government has undertaken to clean up the two cities and explained that while this campaign was in progress it did not think it advisable to hold the elections. Opponents of the President of the republic recently protested to the State Department against this decision.

Sec. Baker's action today was in accordance with the treaty of 1904 between the United States and Panama, which provides that if, in the judgment of the American Government the Government of Panama is unable to maintain order in the cities of Panama and Colon, the United States shall take such steps as may be necessary to preserve order.

MY FOUR YEARS IN GERMANY

You Must See It!

MR. DOCTOR:

Because your profession numbers thousands in the humane service that is fighting the beastly cruelties of the Hun, Mr. Gerard depicts these most vividly.

MR. LAWYER:

Because Mr. Gerard as a statesman, the champion of American independence, coped with the greatest problems ever emanating from international law, and won, for you and your country.

MR. INDIAN CHIEF:

Because the "milling pot" is now separating the refined patriot from the dross and denigrates you be now a real American. Here you will learn the true elements that forced the war for democracy upon America.

MR. RICH MAN:

For what would it profit you if you gained the whole world's goods only to feel the iron heel of Prussianism as Mr. Gerard saw it planted upon the very vitals of Germany.

MR. POOR MAN:

Because even the widow's mite is helping to finance this war for national independence and you will realize why our poorest and dearest even our last earthly possession must be staked.

MR. WORKMAN:

MANY USES FOR Y. M. C. A. AT CAMP

Camp Devens, June 29.—An Army Y. M. C. A. auditorium has its uses. All day long Friday it served as a Federal Court chamber for the naturalization of hundreds of alien soldiers. At 7 p. m. two trains of soldiers rushed on the floor for two hours of basket ball. At 9 p. m. 250 recruits blew into camp unexpectedly from Camp Upton, and there was no place to put them. So they slept on benches in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium.

BOYS OF 1918 CLASS AMONG GERMAN PRISONERS

With the American Army in France, June 29, German youths of the 1918 class who were serving in thirty divisions of the German army are among the prisoners who have been captured within the month. Information shows that men of this class are at the front in still other divisions.

It is known that these young men are placed in the regiments in proportion of ten to each company and that they are called upon in larger proportion as reinforcements to replace the men lost in battle. They were sent to the front generally after only five months of training owing to the haste of the German preparations for the present great offensive on the Western front.

The K. of C. won from the Y. M. C. A. 4 to 2 Friday evening in a little game. A heavy mist prevailed and umpire Woods called the game in the fifth.

Driscoll held the losers safe after the first inning. Brigham essayed to pitch for the Y. M. C. A. but was wild and this coupled with timely hitting and loose holding at critical times spelled defeat for the Association team.

In the first inning Estabrook and Hughes walked and Paul Bailey drop-center, Connors going to third. Reardon stole second and Driscoll walked filling the bases. Sullivan dropped Estabrook's fly but recovered in time to nail Connors at the plate. Hughes hit to Thompson who fumbled, scoring him to Powers to Glover but Estabrook Reardon and Driscoll P. Bailey was

A SURPRISE ATTACK MADE BY ALLIES

(By Associated Press)

In anticipation of a new drive by the Germans the British troops along the Flanders front and the French troops further south have struck first.

Although slight details are available, the allies have taken the enemy by surprise and have advanced towards Tournai. Many prisoners and many machine guns were taken.

The attack of the British was at mid-day in between Haguenau and Mulhouse on a 12-mile front. Several small hamlets have been captured.

The Germans had struck first. It is not probable that they would have gone for Saint-Omer connecting with the chain of battles at Calais and Dunkirk by railroad on the south.

The stroke of French troops was on a front 1-2 miles long and they have apparently blocked the gateway to Paris. At several points they have penetrated the German lines for 1-1 1/2 miles.

Although the two attacks were separated by one hundred miles they both occurred at the same time and was a carefully planned bit of strategy by Gen. Poch, the commander-in-chief of the allies.

The German officer says that her troops have been engaged in repulsing the enemy.

Fighting between the Italians and the Austrians in the mountain region is quite heavy but along the Piave conditions are very quiet.

The British official office that aerial activity on the front in Flanders has increased markedly. Twenty-nine enemy air planes were encountered for 20 being destroyed and 9 descending out of control of their pilot.

MEXICANS ARE RAISING MORE WHEAT

Juarez, Mex., June 28.—"Mexicans in the north are raising less wheat and more wheat" was the way an American mining man who reached here recently from a tour of the interior of Chihuahua state, characterized the conditions in Northern Mexico. In the fertile Laguna basin, near Torreon, wheat has been planted instead of cotton this year because of the ravages of the pink boll weevil in that district last year which destroyed the cotton crop.

In the little valleys near Santa Rosalia, Jimenez and Pilar de Concho the native farmers have been harvesting their wheat crops and have found the yield much heavier than in former seasons. Along the Rio Grande and Conchos rivers in the Ojuna district wheat harvests have been bounteous and the farmers in that district are prosperous. At Jimenez the old Hacienda Dolores mill, which was used as a fortress during the revolutions, has been started to grinding grain and the water power mills near Santa Rosalia are again operating after five years of idleness.

Portsmouth Women Have Learned the Cause of Many Mysterious Pains and Aches.

Many women have come to know that sex isn't the reason for all backaches, dizzy headaches and urinary disorders. Men have these troubles, too, and often they come from kidney weakness. To live simply, eat sparingly, take better care of one's self and to use Doan's Kidney Pills is bound to help bad kidneys get better. There is no other remedy so well recommended by Portsmouth people. Read this case:

Mrs. A. B. Joy, 41 Myrtle Ave., Portsmouth, says: "My back gave me an awful lot of trouble and I had stiffness and dull pains just over my hips. Headaches occurred frequently and pains sometimes shot from my shoulders into my head. My feet swelled, my kidneys were very frequent in action and I felt all tired out. Finally I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Phillips' Pharmacy, and they helped me right from the start and corrected this trouble. Since then, they have always given me great benefit when it has been necessary for me to use them."

EDITORS VISIT IS REGARDED AS IMPORTANT

Washington, June 28.—The present tour of nearly 100 Mexican newspaper editors through the United States is regarded by American officials in touch with Latin affairs as far more important than it may seem to the casual reader. It is one of the steps which it is hoped may thwart the German propaganda in Mexico and defeat the sinister effort to align the republic south of the Rio Grande against the United States.

President Wilson openly recognized this factor when he addressed the editors in private audience at the White House, and then insisted that his speech should first be read by the Mexican people before it was printed in the newspapers of the United States.

The stories of German atrocities in Belgium said one of the American officials in touch with Latin affairs, do not seriously disturb the average Mexican.

Of course the better classes, those more highly educated, have the same feeling regarding the treatment of Belgium as the rest of the civilized world, but this class is comparatively small. The greater part of the Mexican people have seen so much horror in recent revolutions that another horror has little effect upon them.

The Germans in Mexico have persistently impressed upon the Mexicans that German efficiency and forcefulness, as well as German valor, are going to win the war. Every slight victory is immediately magnified when related to the Mexicans. An example of this was shown when the pro-German press in Mexico reported the sinking of sixteen American battleships off our coast recently by U-boats when, as a matter of fact, a few coasting vessels only were sunk.

The Mexican editors are sending back to their papers, stories telling something of what the United States is doing to win the war. These stories cannot fail to impress the readers as the Mexican press above all a winner.

The visitors have seen many things that very few Americans have seen: the wonderful work of our shipyards, munition plants and big gun works. They are more and more impressed not only with the fact that the United States is in the war to win but with the fact that the Allies with the help of the United States will surely win the war.

This is the message the Mexico editors are sending back to Mexico daily—that Germany is doomed. They fully appreciate the fact that the United States has not yet reached her maximum of productivity either of men or materials and that the determination of this country to make the world safe for democracy is unshakable. And they realize that when the war is over the United States will have a tremendous troop army.

This visit of editors from our sister republic is of supreme importance at this time when the Germans in their country have control of a large portion of the press and are doing their utmost to create trouble of a serious nature between the two countries.

Grand DANCING PARTY

A very enjoyable dancing party was given last night at Central Park, Dover.

The celebrated Jefferson Jazz Band of Boston furnished the music and they were wonderfully applauded.

In the dancing contest Mr. Thomas Sheehan and Miss Florence Knight were declared the winners.

The management, Mr. J. F. Flynn, is striving to please the dancing patrons by furnishing music of the highest quality with extra and costly added features.

This same jazz band will be in Freeman's Hall July 11th. Watch for the added feature.

Oscar Laighton to Observe Anniversary of His Natal Day on Sunday.

Oscar Laighton will celebrate another anniversary of his birth tomorrow. This recalls when he was in ac-

Mr. Laighton was born in this city but has spent most of his life at the island. He has except short visits to Portsmouth and vicinity. With his brother he succeeded to the business at the island which was established by his father, the late Hon. Thomas Laighton.
